

ATHENS-CLARKE COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

R. Scott Freeman, Ph.D.
Chief of Police

Justin D. Gregory
Deputy Chief

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: 04/28/2017

Kentucky Circle Home Invasion

At around 11:50 p.m. on April 27th officers were dispatched to a residence off of Kentucky Circle in reference to a home invasion. Upon their arrival on scene, they met with the victims who stated that 2 to 3 males forcibly entered his residence armed with guns. He said that the suspects told him and his girlfriend to lie on the ground, and the both of them complied with their orders. While on the ground the suspects bound and tied him and girlfriend. While this was occurring the victim's son returned to the residence, and he too was given verbal commands to lie on the ground and not move. During this incident, the suspect's covered the victim's heads with towels in an attempt to keep the victims from seeing them. The victims were unable to give any other description of the suspect, other than they were black males. Items that were taken from the home included a weapon, cash, a gaming system and other items. No one was physically harmed during this incident, and the investigation is ongoing. Anyone with any information is asked to contact the Athens-Clarke County Police

###

Epifanio Rodriguez

Epifanio.rodriguez@athensclarkecounty.com

(706)286-2013